

Sub-Committees

Application Pack & Information

Boxing Ireland – Call for Volunteer Sub-Committee Members

Boxing Ireland is inviting expressions of interest from members, and suitably qualified professionals from outside of boxing, who wish to serve on voluntary sub-committees supporting the continued development, governance and strategic direction of the organisation.

Our Sub-committees and working groups will play an important advisory and developmental role, supporting the Board and wider membership across a range of key operational and strategic areas. Committees will meet quarterly, primarily online, and will report to the Boxing Ireland Board and members at the Company AGM.

We are particularly encouraging applications from individuals with diverse experiences, backgrounds and perspectives who are passionate about contributing positively to the future of boxing in Ireland.

Available Sub-Committees:

- Commercial & Marketing / Audit & Risk / Stadium Development & Improvement / High Performance Advisory / Nominations & HR / Governance & Rules

Commitment

- Quarterly meetings (primarily online)
- Voluntary role
- Opportunities to contribute to strategic projects and initiatives
- Reporting through committee structures to the Board and AGM

How to Apply

Please submit a short expression of interest outlining:

- The committee(s) you are interested in joining
- Relevant experience or areas of interest
- What you would hope to contribute

Applications should be submitted by June 15th, 2026. Via (insert form). The Boxing Ireland Nominations Panel will review all applications and make a recommendation to the Board as to the compilation of committees.
